'Angels, Angels, Everywhere' Wins Coveted Purple Dragonfly Book Award

CHANDLER, AZ (June, 2015) – The judges of the Purple Dragonfly Book Awards contest, which recognizes excellence in children's literature, have spoken, and Angels, Angels, Everywhere by Michelle Beber, won 1st place in the poetry category. The book also won 2nd place in the spiritual/religious category and received honorable mention in four other categories: best illustrations, cultural diversity, picture books 5 and younger, and picture books 6 and older.

"Winning any place in the Purple Dragonfly Contest is a huge honor because in order to maintain the integrity of the Dragonfly Book Awards, a minimum score is required before a First or Second place or Honorable Mention will be awarded to the entrant – even if it is the sole entry in a category," explains Linda F. Radke, president of Five Star Publications, the sponsor of the Dragonfly Book Awards. "Competition is steep, too, because there is no publication date limit as long as the book is still in print."

Angels, Angels, Everywhere is a non-denominational, multi-racial book written in delightful rhythm and rhyme with themes of constant support and unconditional love. It teaches children how angels can help them in their everyday lives and empowers them with faith. The book retails for $16.95 and can be purchased at www.amazon.com, www.barnesandnoble.com, and www.balboapress.com.
